FAYETTE HIGH SCHOOL.

DURSUANT to public notice, previously given this Seminary will be opened on Monday, the while the principle sincerely tenders his acknowledgements to his friends, both in Howard and Chariton counties, for past encouragement, he trusts that his ultimate object, (that of establishing an institution worthy of the patronage of those who may desire to give their children an accomplished education) will not be frustrated for the want of a suitable liberality on the part of the citizens of this and the contiguous counties.

If education is the bandmaid of religion, if it is the preserver of law, if it is the superstructure of morality, and the safeguard of liberty, then where is the citizen who values his country, and cherishe his offspring, that will not come forward in this noble cause, and thus contribute by his means, to the welfare of the one and the happiness of the other.

At the close of each session a public examination of three or four days will take place, in presence of a committee of Trustees of the College, and a Board of visitors consisting of nine gentle-men whose duty it will be to report, as well to the public, as to the Missouri Annual Conference. such facts relative to the institution as they may deem useful or important.
